

Drip

Andrew Garcia

Girl you hit me like that honey drip, uh
I can feel you on my fingertips, yeah
And if you want you can be my guest
You're a beauty, I'm a beast, you're a freak

Whatchu need to make it go (yeah)
All the way down to the floor?
Throw a couple hundreds on 'em
Let me see some more, oh
Anything you need to make it go
Baby make it go, oh-oh-oh

You like that living rich and fabulous (fabulous, yeah)
You keep that body so immaculate (immaculate, yeah)
You pop that booty on the cabinet
Ooh, you so talented
I ain't mad at it, no, no

I know you like it when I take it slow, yeah
Don't gotta tell me, I already know that I got that status but I keep it low
If you kissing, don't tell
I'll treat you so well mama

I'll fly you out for some champagne in Miami (-ami)
Head out to California, link up with my family (-amily)
Oh-whoa-whoa-whoa, take you where you wanna go
When you bend it back to the floor
You get anything that you ask for

Girl you hit me like that honey drip, uh
I can feel you on my fingertips, yeah
And if you want you can be my guest

You don't need those diamonds on your neck, girl, you're shining
Take you somewhere private on a jet, we be flying
Don't you worry 'bout these other girls, they be trying
Where you wanna be, only you and me, out here

Let's go dancing, I'll brush up on my salsa
Turn up the temperature, you might need of some of this agua
Oh-whoa-whoa-whoa, take you where you wanna go
When you bent it back to the floor
You get anything that you ask for, yeah
