

Gambler

Andrew Gold

Come over here, cause I've got something to say to you
In all this time, I still haven't found my way to you

I could see right away
You move like a lioness but love could break you
I ain't no gambler, but baby this ain't no game

What was his name, the man that you lived on
And who took the blame?
You said he strangled you, but you held the rope
But I believe you weren't all the same

I could see right away
You move like a lioness but love could break you
I ain't no gambler, but baby this ain't no game

Hey hey

You know so, women are strong and some tag along
And well, men are the same
But you got it wrong, if you think you're gonna fall for any ma n
That can change it, baby

I could see right away
You move like a lioness but love could break you
I ain't no gambler, but baby this ain't no game
Baby, this ain't no game
Baby, this ain't no game
Baby, this ain't no game
