

Genevieve

Andrew Gold

On the sand, the morning sun surrounds her
As it feels the sky
Oh to kiss her golden hair
Genevieve, I never fell so helplessly
Genevieve, hmm I never fell so far

Genevieve, every one wants to win your heart and I just like them standing in line
Oh but I love you, love you, love you, love you, Genevieve

In your eyes I see a shining ocean
And it's clear and deep clear and deep and as blue as the sky
Genevieve won't you turn around and see me
Genevieve this time don't turn and walk away

Genevieve, every one wants to win your heart and I just like them standing in line
Oh but I love you, love you, love you, love you, Genevieve

All my life I always dreamed I'd feel this much desire
But now it only feels like I'm on fire
Oh Genevieve wo oh wo ho

Genevieve, every one wants to win your heart and I just like them standing in line

Oh but I love you, love you, love you, love you, Genevieve

Turn around turn around Genevieve
