

Still You Linger On

Andrew Gold

You used to live in this house with me
I wandered these rooms where you used to be
Oh, baby, baby, I miss you
Oh, baby, sometimes I do

You've been away about a year or so
I still sit and wonder why I had to let go
Oh, baby, baby, I miss you
Oh, baby, sometimes I do

We never said enough to work it out
With only the passion to talk about
Oh, baby, baby, I miss you
Oh, baby, sometimes I do

'Cause you and I have such lonely hearts
They drew us together and pulled us apart
Oh, baby, baby, I miss you
Oh, baby, sometimes I do

All alone I thought the sadness gone
But still it lingers on
Still you linger on

All alone I thought the sadness gone
But still it lingers on
Still you linger on
