

Timothy Corey

Andrew Gold

Oh Timothy Corey
You thought you were the only one
You believed in God
And thought you were the only son

Where are you now?
Where are you now?

Y'know, you couldn't see where you oughta be
You're fallin' fallin' off the cloud

I know you think you're landin'
In the middle of nowhere
But you've gotta choice in the matter
But what's it gonna be?

Timothy Corey
Timothy Corey

Y'know, you couldn't see what you oughta be
You're fallin' fallin' off the cloud

It doesn't matter where you think you're goin'
It doesn't matter who you think you'll be
'Cause sooner or later it's all gonna come and undo ya
Man, is that gonna be sad to see

Yeah

Oh Timothy Corey
You thought you were the only one
You believed in God
And thought you were the only son

Where are you now?
Oh, where are you now?

Y'know, you couldn't see where you oughta be
You're fallin' fallin' off the cloud

It doesn't matter where you think you're goin'
It doesn't matter who you think you'll be
'Cause sooner or later it's all gonna come and undo ya
And man, is that gonna be sad to see

Oh

I know you think you're landin'
In the middle of nowhere
But you've gotta choice in the matter
But what's it gonna be?

Timothy Corey
Oh Timothy Corey

Y'know, you couldn't see what you oughta be
You're fallin' fallin' off your cloud

'Cause I'm gonna push you
Ooh, right off the cloud

Whoa Timothy
Fallin' off, fallin' off your cloud
Mmm Timothy Corey
