

To Be Someone

Andrew Gold

I spent some time in thinking back today
There was a time when I used to say
You're the one that I really need
To be someone
Oh baby

Could you keep me close in
Not when I was goin'
And did you watch me wander into the sleepin' sun
By myself, I find no one else
To be someone
Oh baby

Bring who you want to at the break of day
It doesn't matter what you do
It's gonna set you free
We can all be what we wanna be
And we'll all come runnin' home
All back home again

Did you wonder where I have been?
And have you wanted to see me again?
You're the one that I really need
To be someone
Oh baby

And we'll all come runnin' home
All back home

Bring who you want to at the break of day
It doesn't matter what you do
It's gonna set you free
We can all be what we wanna be
And we'll all come runnin' home
All back home

Bring who you want to at the break of day
It doesn't matter what you do
It's gonna set you free
We can all be what we wanna be
And we'll all come runnin' home
All back home... ah
