

You're Free

Andrew Gold

In the beginning you say you and her were happy
But what's the point if you can't be that way again?
It seems the two of you in haste
Refused to meet it face-to-face
If that's the case

You're free
Free to let her go
Free to let her know
It's time to let it go
Just go beyond the pain
It'll never feel the same
Just tell her so

Why don't you sit her down to explain the situation?
You know you realize it's how it ought to be
She's watching love fade in your eyes
It'll come as no surprise
Take my advice

You're free
Free to let her go
Free to let her know
It's time to let it go
Just go beyond the pain
It'll never feel the same
Just tell her so

Why just fake it
You know that you can't make it better

Free
Free to let her go
You're free to let her know
It's time to let it go
Just go beyond the pain
It'll never feel the same
Just tell her soul

Free
Free to let her go
You're free to let her know
It's time to let it go (Come on!)
Go beyond the pain
It'll never feel the same
Just tell her so

Free...
