

Your Voice, as I Remember It

Andrew Jackson Jihad

I long to hear your voice as I remember it
I long to hear your voice as I remember it
But I can't and I won't
I can't and I won't cause you're dead and you're buried
I long to hear your voice as I remember it
I long to hear your voice as I remember it
But now I have no choice but to remember it
No recordings were made
No mp3's
No AAC's
No WAV's
I long to hear your voice, the timbre of your voice
I long to hear your voice as I remember it
No recordings were made
No mp3's
I long to hear your voice, the timbre of your voice
I long to hear your voice as I remember it
