

Lie Like Me

Andrew Jannakos

Had some buddies hit me on
Said it's been long enough
Time to get you back on your feet
So I said, might as well
'Cause it sure been some hell
Out of spending all night with me

I was feeling alright, doing just fine
For the first song or two
But had you over my mind
'Til your pretty green eyes came
Walking up out of the blue

Tell me girl, will you tell everybody
You still think we're meant to be
That every second, every minute
Doesn't matter how you spend it
You're still here, you're spinning with me
On the hardwood floor like we used to do
When it was me and you
Do you tell them the truth or baby
Do you lie like me?

Your smile tell 'em all that you'd been better off
Giving you and me another try
'Cause you can't see yourself needing somebody else
The way you need me tonight

Tell me girl, will you tell everybody
You still think we're meant to be
That every second, every minute
Doesn't matter how you spend it
You're still here, you're spinning with me
On the hardwood floor like we used to do
When it was me and you
Do you tell them the truth or baby
Do you lie like me?
Do you lie like me?

Had some buddies hit me on
Said it's been long enough
Time to get you back on your feet

Tell me girl, will you tell everybody
You still think we're meant to be
That every second, every minute
Doesn't matter how you spend it
You're still here, you're spinning with me
On the hardwood floor like we used to do
When it was me and you
Do you tell them the truth or baby
Do you lie like me?
Do you lie like me?
