

Driving Through A Dream

Andrew McMahon

Straighter than the flat line freeway
That's the way your hair falls down
We could watch the trains from the tightrope
Chase the dark

Out here on a desert fault line
That's the way the world goes 'round
I'm losing track of time inside this
Racing heart
Your racing heart

Staring out the window with your, with your head on my shoulder
Try to get some sleep we'll be driving through a dream
(Try to get some sleep we'll be driving through a dream)
Riding through the heart of the dark that you fought like a soldier
(Staring out the window with your)
Try to get some sleep we'll be driving through a dream

Oh oh
Oh oh
Oh oh

Try to get some sleep we'll be driving through a dream

Clinging to your late night courage
Anything to pass the time
Lying in the backseat trying not to fall apart
Waiting for your life to start

Staring out the window with your, with your head on my shoulder
(Staring out the window with your)
Try to get some sleep we'll be driving through a dream
(Try to get some sleep we'll be driving through a dream)
Riding through the heart of the dark that you fought like a soldier
(Staring out the window with your)
Try to get some sleep we'll be driving through a dream

Oh oh
Oh oh
Oh oh

Try to get some sleep we'll be driving through a dream

And the night is long
The road is longer
You say you sleep better when I'm awake
I'll stay awake for you

Staring out the window with your, with your head on my shoulder
(Staring out the window with your)
Try to get some sleep we'll be driving through a dream
(Try to get some sleep we'll be driving through a dream)
Riding through the heart of the dark that you fought like a soldier
(Staring out the window with your)
Try to get some sleep we'll be driving through a dream

Oh oh

Oh oh
Oh oh

Try to get some sleep we'll be driving through a dream
Try to get some sleep we'll be driving through a dream

Oh oh
Oh oh
Oh oh

Try to get some sleep we'll be driving through a dream
