

It Will Come

Andrew Ripp

Curled up lying broken down and bruised
Cold and crying wounds on top of wounds
Whispering barely hale marys

I wonder why the simple days are done
Starry eyes wide open in the sun
Easy smiles and dreams where have they gone
Try to remember...

When you're ready, love will find you
If you're waiting, that's all you can do
Be ready for your rescue
Keep breathing, it will come to you
Keep breathing, it will come

Raise your head the air begins to move
Hear the rain drops tapping on the roof
Falling tears will bring tomorrows bloom
Try to remember...

When you're ready, love will find you
If you're waiting, that's all you can do
Be ready for your rescue
Keep breathing, it will come to you
Keep breathing, it will come...

There's a faint light glowing through a crack in the door
There's a faint light glowing through a crack in the door
There's a faint light glowing through a crack in the door...

When you're ready, love will find you
If you're waiting, that's all you can do
Be ready for your rescue
Keep breathing, it will come to you
Keep breathing, it will come to you
It will come to you
