

Just Enough

Andrew Ripp

If I knew what I was gonna have to go through
To get to where I wanna go to
I don't know if I'd've come this far
Without you I couldn't tell a lie from the truth
And there's no way I could see
What I want is a love I need

You give me just enough
To keep me going when my hope is lost
Yeah, not to lie alone
You always know
What's too little or too much
You give me just enough

It's okay
Even when the blue skies black gray
Even to soon as too late
And everything I had is all washed away

You give me just enough
To keep me going when my hope is lost
Yeah, not to lie alone
You always know
What's too little or too much

You give me just enough
To keep me awake when
I need a real love that's not fake
You give me just enough
Give me just enough
To keep me going when my hope is lost
Yeah not to lie alone
You always know
What's too little or too much
You give me just enough
You give me just enough
