

Did you stop to think
Is he making you a question
All of that you took for granted
All the fools on whom you counted
Are you finally where you should have
It's the wakeup call you needed
So you're finally moving on
I doubt you will be long

You need a hole in your head
I want to see blood oozing out
All your pride and your scheming
All your lies and deceiving
You need a hole in your head

You thought I quit and run
My tail tucked neatly away
I guess you failed to notice
I'm like your other prey
They got a head I like to use
Not dazzled by your ruse
You better head on south
Put a muzzle on my mouth

You need a hole in your head
I want to see blood oozing out
All your pride and your scheming
All your lies and deceiving
You need a hole in your head
I want to see blood oozing out
All your pride and your scheming
All your lies and deceiving
You need a hole in your head

They got a head I like to use
Not dazzled by your ruse
You better head on south
Put a muzzle on my mouth

You need a hole in your head
I want to see blood oozing out
All your pride and your scheming
All your lies and deceiving
You need a hole in your head
I want to see blood oozing out
All your pride and your scheming
All your lies and deceiving
You need a hole in your head
