

If I'd Known

Andy Brown

Dust please settle
Regret, slip away
Time starts, you're healing
Memories fade
Help me remember
Tell me where I was before
Why I'm wide awake
Alone
Made my mistakes
But if I'd known

If that was the last time that I'd kiss her
Then I would've kissed her softer
And maybe I'd remember
What was on the radio
At the moment I walked out
Was the moment that I lost her
I'd never have gone
If I'd known

Nights get easier
Dreams come back again
Bring on a new day
Sunlight shining
Tears stop, you're falling
Let me move on
Actually knew she was gonna vanish
All along
She just disappeared
But if I'd known

If that was the last time that I'd kiss her
Then I would've kissed her softer
And maybe I'd remember
What was on the radio
At the moment I walked out
Was the moment that I lost her
I'd never have gone
If I'd known

If that was the last time that I'd see her
I'd just sit right back and watch her
The last time I'd say I love you
Say it over and over and over
The last chance I had to hold her
Then I wouldn't let go
I'd never have gone
If I'd known
