

John Travolta

Andy Brown

I don't like attention
Don't want the eyes on me
I tend to feel self-conscious
On my two left feet

But I'll silent dance with you all night
Spin you round in the kitchen light
I don't care who's watching me
'Cause when we're dancing I feel free
I can't do the salsa
But with you I'm John Travolta

Everyone around us
They all disappear
And I'm too busy falling
To feel any fear

But I'll silent dance with you all night
Spin you round in the kitchen light
I don't care who's watching me
'Cause when we're dancing I feel free
I can't do the salsa
But with you I'm John Travolta

Never known a love like this [?] locked in a smile, lost in a kiss
I could stay like this forever
By your side, it feels like heaven darling
Oh, darling

I'd never waste a moment
If I could do it all again
'Cause there ain't been no dancing
Ever since you left

So silent dance with me all night
Spin me round in the kitchen light
I don't care who's watching us
'Cause dancing with you feels so good
I can't do the salsa
Mmh, I can't do the salsa
Maybe I could try the salsa
Oh, one day I'll be your John Travolta
Be your John Travolta