

Lay With Me

Andy Brown

Touching skin underneath your sheets
Green eyes staring back at me
But I know you'll be gone in the morning
And your head's saying leave but you're falling
John Mayer's on the speakers
We're just a couple of dreamers
Staying up, making love till the sunrise
Pretty soon you'll be out of sight

But you say be strong
But I know that I can't wait that long

So move a little closer
Put your head up on my shoulder
And darling, lay with me, lay with me
'Cause we just need a lie in
Girl, you got me begging
For you to lay with me, lay with me

Come back to bed and we'll draw the plans
Maybe we can find a compromise
Who do I gotta kill to persuade ya
To put down your makeup?

You say be strong
But I know that I can't wait that long

So move a little closer
Put your head up on my shoulder
And darling, lay with me, lay with me
'Cause we just need a lie in
Girl, you got me begging
For you to lay with me, lay with me

You say be strong
But I know baby, that I can't wait that long

So move a little closer
Put your head up on my shoulder
And darling, lay with me, lay with me
'Cause we just need a lie in
Girl, you got me begging
For you to lay with me, lay with me
