Worth It

Andy Brown

Might get it wrong sometimes
Might get it right sometimes
Might make ya laugh sometimes
Might make you cry sometimes
Sometimes I might drive you crazy
Sometimes love might make you hate me, but
We ain't givin' up
That's the thing about us

I'm not sayin' it's gonna be easy
Might be seconds you think about leaving
Seconds come and seconds go
But when they do, I hope you know
That the good times are worth the bad
The highs are worth the crash
I ain't sayin' it's gonna be perfect
I'm just sayin' it's gonna be worth it
Mmh—mmh—mmh
Worth it

You might lock the door sometimes
You might block my calls sometimes
Put up your walls sometimes
Then let 'em fall sometimes
Sometimes I might push your buttons
Sometimes I might just say nothin'
I just hold you
'Cause I know you

I'm not sayin' it's gonna be easy
Might be seconds you think about leaving
Seconds come and seconds go
But when they do, I hope you know
That the good times are worth the bad (worth the bad)
The highs are worth the crash
I ain't sayin' it's gonna be perfect
I'm just sayin' it's gonna be worth it
Oh yeah
You're so worth it

Our love's a fire
Sometimes it dances
We don't put it out
We just take our chances

I'm not sayin' it's gonna be easy (I'm not sayin' it's easy)
Might be seconds you think about leaving (oh—oh)
Seconds come and seconds go
But when they do, I hope you know
That the good times are worth the bad (worth the bad)
The highs are worth the crash (so worth the crash)
I ain't sayin' it's gonna be perfect
I'm just sayin' it's gonna be worth it
Yeah
So worth it

I might get it wrong sometimes

I might get it right sometimes
I might make ya laugh sometimes

I might get it right sometimes
I might make ya laugh sometimes
