

The Beach

Andy Davis

Full moon is shining on this beach
Wrapped in a blanket you and me
Oh, and the tide is rising
Just like we pictured it to be,
The rest of the world slipped out to sea
Oh, and the tide is rising

I'm happy laying here beside you
Whisper in my ear,
To hold you 'cuz it's cold
I'm found starin' in these eyes,
Let the morning skies come creep up on the night
We'll be waiting here

Good thing this fairytale we have,
Isn't a castle in the sand
Oh, cuz the tide is rising

When we stand back across these dunes,
We'll have another million moons
Oh and it all keeps rising

I'm happy laying here beside you
Whisper in my ear,
To hold you 'cuz it's cold
I'm found starin' in these eyes,
Let the morning skies come creep up on the night
We'll be waiting here
(repeat chorus)
