

Blind Spots

Andy Grammer

Let you inside, I let you inside all the way
Into my heart, into the places that felt safe
My friends and family, oh, they all warned me
Said I had a blind spot, and you had sides I didn't see

I thought that I could make you change
I thought that I could take the pain
So I played the hero, wore a smile and wore a cape
When all along I was the one that needed to be saved

Oh, I've got (I've got)
Oh, I've got (I've got)
Oh, I've got blind spots I can't see through
I've got (I've got)
Oh, I've got (I've got)
Oh, I've got blind spots, one of them is you
Oh, I've got blind spots, one of them is you

Said we were different, rules did not apply to us
No one else would understand, no one else that we could trust
You were the one who was supposed to give me help
In the end, I guess you taught me how to help myself

I thought that I could make you change
I thought that I could take the pain
So I played the hero, wore a smile and wore a cape
When all along I was the one that needed to be saved

Oh, I've got (I've got)
Oh, I've got (I've got)
Oh, I've got blind spots I can't see through
I've got (I've got)
Oh, I've got (I've got)
Oh, I've got blind spots, one of them is you
Oh, I've got blind spots, one of them is you

Oh, I've got (I've got)
Oh, I've got (I've got)
Oh, I've got blind spots I can't see through
I've got (I've got)
Oh, I've got (I've got)
Oh, I've got blind spots, one of them is you
