

Born for This

Andy Grammer

I was born for this, I was born for this
I was born for this, I was born for this
I was born for this right here
Say it 'til the doubt disappears

I feel like an imposter, yeah
Ain't nobody caught me yet
Playing hide and seek, yeah
Hope that you don't see that
I'm making this up, oh

Hold up, who deserve this more than me?
Guitar case open on the street
Been fighting since I'm 17
Don't know no other way, eh, eh
Just gotta say that

I was born for this, I was born for this
I was born for this, I was born for this
I was born for this right here
Say it 'til the doubt disappears
And tell the face in the mirror
I was born for this, I was born for this
I was born for this, I was born for this
I was born for this right here
Say it 'til the doubt disappears
And tell the face in the mirror

I been, I been ready for this all my, all my life
All the voices in my head trying to throw me off my line
When I, when I start to listen to 'em, I gotta remind myself

Hold up, who deserve this more than you?
Nobody know what you been through
You're stronger than you ever knew
Don't get to be afraid, eh, eh
Just gotta say that

I was born for this, I was born for this
I was born for this, I was born for this
I was born for this right here
Say it 'til the doubt disappears
And tell the face in the mirror
I was born for this, I was born for this
I was born for this, I was born for this
I was born for this right here
Say it 'til the doubt disappears
And tell the face in the mirror

I'ma stand up, I'm never coming down (I'm never coming down)
I'ma rise up, I'm coming for my crown (I'm coming for my crown)
I'ma stand up, I'm never coming down (I'm never coming down)
I'ma rise up, I'm coming for my crown (I'm coming for my crown)

I was born for this, I was born for this
I was born for this, I was born for this
I was born for this right here

Say it 'til the doubt disappears
And tell the face in the mirror
I was born for this, I was born for this
I was born for this, I was born for this
I was born for this right here
Say it 'til the doubt disappears
And tell the face in the mirror
I was born for this, I was born for this
I was born for this, I was born for this
I was born for this right here
Say it 'til the doubt disappears
And tell the face in the mirror
