

Jump

Andy Grammer

What if I jump? What if it works?
What if I'm meant, meant to be more than patient?
More than patient
I'm biting my tongue, holding my breath
I think it's time we had a conversation
A real conversation

Make a choice, make it loud
Rip the chord, pull it now
One foot in, one foot out
Don't look down

Just jump, jump, jump into the abyss
I'm jumping out of my skin
You'll never know it exists
Until, until you
Jump, jump, time for me to jump ship
'Cause how it is, it ain't it
You never know what you miss
Until, until you jump

(Jump!)

I'm burning the boat, starting again
Doors that were closed, now they been cracking open
Cracking open
Scaling the walls, climbing the vines
I think it's time to dive in the nearest ocean
Nearest ocean

Make a choice, make it loud
Home is everywhere now
One foot in, one foot out
Don't look down

Just jump, jump, jump into the abyss
I'm jumping out of my skin
You'll never know it exists
Until, until you
Jump, jump, time for me to jump ship
'Cause how it is, it ain't it
You never know what you miss
Until, until you (jump)

Oh, oh-eh
Eh-eh (jump!)
Eh-eh (jump, jump)
(Jump!) Oh, oh-eh
Eh-eh (jump!)
Eh-eh (jump, jump)
(Jump!)
