

Pendulum

Andy Grammer

One minute, I'm the king
Then the lowest name on the list of this totem pole
It's hard to reach out to pieces
Tryin' to keep my belief in myself

I been roll, I been rollin' on
These emo.. these emotions been pulling me over the edge
Changing the size of my head
Back and forth, back and forth and now, I'm exposed
My ego is like, oh no, here we go again
Learning to live with the swing of this pendulum

So fragile, I could break any minute
Then I'll go run my mouth like I'm some shit
It's so hard to be all of these things
Tryin' to keep my belief in myself

I been roll, I been rollin' on
These emo.. these emotions been pulling me over the edge
Changing the size of my head
Back and forth, back and forth and now, I'm exposed
My ego is like, oh no, here we go again
Learning to live with the swing of this pendulum

One day, when it swings, I'll laugh and say
That I don't care anyway and I will mean it
One day, I'll be a bigger man than this
Will not be so sensitive, yeah, I can see it
'Til then

I been roll, I been rollin' on
These emo.. these emotions been pulling me over the edge
Changing the size of my head
Back and forth, back and forth and now, I'm exposed
My ego is like, oh no, here we go again
Learning to live with the swing of this pendulum
I been roll, I been rollin' on
These emo.. these emotions been pulling me over the edge
Changing the size of my head
Back and forth, back and forth and now, I'm exposed
My ego is like, oh no, here we go again
Learning to live with the swing of this pendulum
