

Nobody's Coming

Andy Mineo

I've been waiting for the day when my father come around
Waiting for that moment when we would paint the town but
Then it all hit me last night, nobody's coming

I've been waiting for that moment when my heart heals
Waiting for someone to take away the pain that I feel
Then it all hit me last night, nobody's coming

But why should I dwell on the things I can't change
What if I'm the answer for things that I've prayed
All I know is if nothing changes before I'm gone
I got no one else I could blame it on
And we been waiting way too long
What if we're the ones that we're waiting on

I've been waiting on peace, but I just bought a piece
One under the bed and one under the seat
I don't know if I'm right or wrong but it helps me sleep

I've been waiting for the day when the cops don't shoot
When they feel safe enough not to wear them bulletproofs
I don't know who is right or wrong but I sure can't sleep

But why should I dwell on the things I can't change
What if I'm the answer for things that I've prayed

All I know is if nothing changes before I'm gone
I got no one else I could blame it on
And we've been waiting way too long
What if we're the ones that we're waiting on

If nothing changes before I'm gone
I got no one else I could blame it on
And we've been waiting way too long
What if we're the ones that we're waiting on

I might just have to be, what I never had for me
I might just have to be, what I never had for me
I might just have to be, what I never had for me
I might just have to be, what I never had for me
