The life I live, look

I remember signin' my first deal Offers came in, ain't know who to go with I prayed about it, didn't hear nothin'
Decision time came, I pushed the button (Push it)
I felt like God was just tellin' me, "Make a decision and stand on it"
He gon' be with me regardless, uh, and that's how I feel 'bout it
Make a whole lot of things more complicated than it gotta be Walk by faith then I hold a lot of things I ain't gon' see Yeah, but this isn't regular, uh
I'm droppin' new again, so now we cool again
They wanna blow up the cellular, uh Even thought about retirin', but I'm still throwin' dimes, uh Gettin' better over time, uh, so I'm goin' overtime, uh This run (Yeah) 'bout to be (Yeah) way more (Yeah) legendary (Y eah)
Than the first (Yeah), hate to talk (Yeah), love the show (Yeah ) , let's get to work (Ooh)
Where I've been (Ooh), in the gym (Ooh), puttin' shots (Ooh), g

Goin' for it (Yeah), on the fourth (Ayy), never scared (Woah), still in church

I've been addicted to gettin' better

Livin' off of little, thinkin' bigger, man, I'm never worried ' bout what they opinion
Could've bought the Benzo, but I didn't, so I went ahead and pu t it in the business
Then I did it again, then I did it again, and I did it— get wha t I'm sayin'?
Thank God for the ants, gave job to my friends Handin' fades out free (What?), feelin' like I'm VicBlends
I seen girls in the DM, can't pay attention to them
I don't even cheat on my barber, why would I be cheatin' with t hem?
Stick to the plan, problem with me is that I never settle

Benefit with me as I never settle, you already know where I'm p uttin' the pedal
Bam, new levels, new devils, I'm ready for whatever

Nah, this isn't regular
I've been addicted to gettin' better
Yeah, this isn't regular
