

Remind Me

Andy Mineo

Sometimes I forget your love
Forget your touch
Yeah, you got, you got, you gotta remind me
Sometimes I forget your love
Forget your touch
Yeah, you got, you got, you gotta remind me

Sometimes you be talking to me like I am a kid
Sometimes you be talking to me like I got no head
Sometimes I be talking back to you the way you did
Next thing you know we just coming at each other'sneck
Right back where we started, it's like we ain't eventry
I don't even get mad anymore, I'm just tired
All the things you saying, it be messing with my pride
Then you know the drill, I shut you out and go quiet

I don't want your sorries
I want you to change
For more than one day
Before we right back to the
Same thing, same thing

Sometimes I forget your love
Forget your touch
Yeah, you got, you got, you gotta remind me
Sometimes I forget your love
Forget your touch
Yeah, you got, you got, you gotta remind me

Would it hurt so bad if I ain't care so much
Your word carry weight that's why I'm feeling crushed
Now I get why people rather fall in lust
It's hard to go from doing me to doing us
Yeah, you be looking bad, how you acting is ugly
I can get so mad I don't want you to touch me
How can we make love when I don't feel like you love me
Ain't nobody told me love isn't always lovely

I don't want your sorries
I want you to change
For more than one day
Before we right back to the
Same thing, same thing

Sometimes I forget your love
Forget your touch
Yeah, you got, you got, you gotta remind me
Sometimes I forget your love
Forget your touch
Yeah, you got, you got, you gotta remind me
