

Catch Your Eye

Andy Shauf

The situation's unclear I guess
I thought it'd happen through
A friend of a friend but it never did
I need to meet you
I need to catch your eye

I thought I saw you in the grocery store
I followed you all the way to the door
But you never did turn
I need to meet you
I need to catch your eye

Words under my breath
Float through the ceiling
I need to meet you
I need to catch your eye
