

I'm Not Falling Asleep

Andy Shauf

When will I ever be safe from myself
If the danger all lies between heaven and hell?
When I close my eyes, I'm not falling asleep
I am opening drawers, I am sifting through papers

Please stay a while, I'm not falling asleep
I'm not falling asleep, I'm not falling asleep
Please stay a while, I'm not falling asleep
I'm not falling asleep, I'm not falling asleep

When will I ever be safe from myself
If the danger all lies between heaven and hell?
When I close my eyes, I'm not falling asleep
I'm not falling asleep, I'm not falling asleep
I'm not falling asleep, I'm not falling asleep
