

In Time

Andy Shauf

You will be okay
Again in time
Tears will fall away
And never climb

When you're not inspired you are claiming to be
Eyes will get tired when they're waiting to fall asleep

You will be okay
To love again
You will find your way
In a crowd of friends

I'll be a smile when you're open with me
When you're so tired of wanting to be someone else

Darling you will be okay in time
