

Long Throw

Andy Shauf

No invitation from you
Only one in a costume
Isn't that just how things work out
On our best days

In the palm of my hand
Thinking you could be watching
Leaning back for the long throw
Wondering when you would arrive

The way that you knew
Just what I meant
Leaning into the big laugh
On our best days

And in the palm of my hand
Thinking you should be calling
Checking over and over
Wondering when you would arrive
Wondering why you never arrived
