

Another Winter's Day

Andy Williams

Another winter's day
Leaves have fallen and blown away
Light has broken the misty dawn
It's so lonely
As I look out across the bay
I remember

Another winter's day
We thought love was here to stay
Every moment we shared was a summer
Then in a moment of madness I let you down
Now there is only a memory of you around
In the darkness I hear you calling my name
In the silence I know that I was to blame
In my loneliness I can't hide from the shame
Since you've gone

Another winter's day
Life keeps moving but here I stay
Oh my darling I hope and pray
You'll forgive me
For my love never went away
Please believe me

Another winter's day
We can move the clouds away
I know love will find a way
If we try again
