I'm So Alone

Andy Williams

All the streets are dark and bare
Not a light shines anywhere
Feeling blue and no one cares
I'm so all alone

Just can't bear this silent room
Quiet as an empty tune
Toss all night
Sleep till noon
Cause I'm so alone

Is there a someone waiting
Lonely just like me
Lord, won't You help me find her
If it's meant to be

Endless night and restless day
Guess I'll just go on this way
Till I find someone someday
And I'm not alone
And I'm not alone
