

My Lonely Room

Andy Williams

I have to say my faith in you is shaken
You've not replaced the love that you have taken
But you came near it tonight

I haven't seen that look in such a long time
I've yet to feel what could be called peace of mind
I came near it tonight

For I've floated high on silver wings
Felt the rush of spring

No more
My lonely room tonight
You're mine tonight for sure

No more
My lonely room tonight
You're mine tonight for sure

No more
My lonely room tonight
You're mine tonight for sure

And if wisdom comes of this
Then unlock it with a kiss
For I never knew that love from you
Could hurt me anymore

No more
My lonely room tonight
You're mine tonight for sure

No more
My lonely room tonight
You're mine tonight for sure
