

Theme from The Sand Pebbles (And We Were Lovers)

Andy Williams

I saw you smiling
As if I could forget
And we were lovers
The moment that we met

And we would wander
Content to wander
Through the golden summer
With nothing to regret

And we were happy
That moment in our lives
And through my sadness
That happiness survived

And I'll remember
As the years go by
Till the day I die
That we were lovers

And I'll remember
As the years go by
Till the day I die
That we were lovers
Still lovers
You and I
