

Breaking the Surface

Ane Brun

There's always more to share
The swords that never fails
That thing that's always there
It never disappears
And while in trying times
It shines like crystal
Breaking the surface
Showing a purpose, oh

There's always more to share
The swords that never fails
That thing that's always there
It never disappears
And while in trying times
It shines like crystal
Breaking the surface
Showing a purpose, oh

There's always more to share
The swords that never fails
