

Du Gråter så Store Tåra

Ane Brun

Your tears are much heavier these days
I've seen them coming in like waves
From the ocean, I've seen them coming
From the ocean, I've seen them growing
And moving with the water

The rocking is getting more severe
They'll sail with you anywhere
We will make it
A little further
Don't you worry
We're almost there

You and me
Oh we'll be
Here always here
You and me

Your tears are much heavier these days
I've seen them coming in like waves
From the ocean, I've seen them coming
From the ocean, I've seen them growing
And moving with the water
And moving with the water

You and me
Oh we'll be
Here always here
You and me
Oh we'll be
Here always here
You and me
Oh we'll be here
