

Feeling Like I Wanna Cry

Ane Brun

I keep feeling like I wanna cry
This world is burning in my eyes
I try to aim for the light
But when I look up, it's still dark

I keep feeling like I wanna cry
All this beauty to be sacrificed
A shadow's cast by us
Our minds are covered in dust

I wanna hold out my hand
Offer everything I am
Can't we form a chain
Get us all back on track again?

I keep feeling like I wanna cry
We're waiting for the seasonal tide
Will it arrive this year?
Will the leaves turn brown?

I wanna hold out my hand
Offer everything I am
Can't we form a chain
Get us all back on track again?
