

Hanging

Ane Brun

We're hanging in between and exhaling the truth
Something in me wants to keep the air breathing and stay put

Linger on and break free from gravity

Your just float baggy clothes
Right here with me
Cause you see, I worry
I can't do without you
oh, without you

There's a magnetic field here
It separates you and me
It's invisible, yet it pushes me away when I try to move nearer

We were standing face to face and I feel paralyzed
I want to find the right things to say
But every line ends with goodbye

Linger on and break free from gravity

Your just float baggy clothes
Right here with me
Cause you see, I worry
I can't do without you
oh, without you

When you let go
You'll be alright then
When you let go
You'll be relieved
When you let go
You will find peace

When you let go
You'll be alright then
When you let go
You'll be relieved
When you let go
You will find peace

Your just float baggy clothes
Right here with me
Cause you see, I worry
oh...
