

Still Waters

Ane Brun

How I've been longing
Oh for this moment when
The rivers are running
All towards the same sea
For this moment when I'm free

Now I have found still waters
The silence rules the waves
I feel the wind slowing down around me
And a mirror is unveiled

How I've been longing
For this moment when
The rivers are running
All towards the same sea
For this moment when I'm free

Now that I feel my own heart beating
I can hear a different pace
My life won't wait and look back at me
I'll be the one to lead the way

How I've been longing
Oh for this moment when
The rivers are running
All towards the same sea
For this moment when I'm free
For this moment when I'm free
For this moment when I'm free
For this moment when I'm free
For this moment
For this moment when I'm free
For this moment
For
For this moment when I'm free
