

I'm in a cabin in the woods, away from lights, so far from sound
I'm in a cabin in the woods, where I am lost, I won't be found
Been a minute, now I feel free
Yeah, when I'm hidden beneath the trees
The infinite exists in me (Me)
And when I'm hidden beneath the trees
I take a minute, now I can breathe

Anything worth anything has always been free
Nothing worth your energy will ever cost a fee
We've been lied to, prescribed to, but I do believe
You will find what's inside is a cry for the trees
Now breathe it in, exhale, all over again
Now breathe it in, and exhale, all over again

I'm in a cabin in the woods, away from lights, so far from sound
I'm in a cabin in the woods, where I am lost, I won't be found
It's been a minute, now I feel free
Yeah, when I'm hidden beneath the trees
The infinite exists in me (Me, me, me)
And when I'm hidden beneath the trees
I take a minute

I am the river that flows without care
I am the fire that brights the night air
I am the mountains stands above clouds
I am the winds which the prophets avowed
I am the flower that bows on the lake
I am the owl when the morning bird wakes
I am the tree with the children reap
I am an all in all and all in all is in me

I'm in a cabin in the woods, away from lights, so far from sound
I'm in a cabin in the woods, where I am lost, I won't be found
It's been a minute, now I feel free
Yeah, when I'm hidden beneath the trees
The infinite exists in me (Me, me, me)
And when I'm hidden beneath the trees
I take a minute

I'm in a cabin in the woods, away from lights, so far from sound
I'm in a cabin in the woods, where I am lost, I won't be found
It's been a minute, but I feel free
Been a minute, I feel like me
Been a minute, but I feel free
When I'm hidden beneath the trees
I, I'm in a cabin in the woods, so far from sound
No one around
When death comes for me, I'll pour a cup of tea
I'll drink it as I think of precious memories
I will fade into dust that will lust for the moon
Not a moment too late, not a moment too soon
I won't fight it, I know that's a battle I can't win
I'll accept it, I'll rest 'til I see you again
I won't fight it, I know that's a battle I can't win
I'll accept it and rest 'til I see you again
