

Nobody can hurt you like the ones you love
It's easy to fall to pieces when they break your trust
You don't need one hundred friends, just need a couple bests
Quality over quantity, don't sweat the rest
And you'll realise in time that your heart is divine
Your energy's sacred, don't waste your time love that ain't real
If they're tearing you down let 'em know how you feel

Say, "Fuck off, get lost, goodbye"
Oh, fuck off, get lost, goodbye
You gotta tell them, "Fuck off, get lost, goodbye"
Fuck off, get lost, goodbye

So leave me alone, I'm driving back home
It'll take me am minute, but I know I can move on
I need peace in my mind, need to sit with my soul
I refuse to be used, my time is precious as gold
I don't want you to stay
So leave like the trees
I need comfort in solitude, in the silence of ease
I find that in me, I never got that from you
And I don't mean to be rude, but you know what to do

Fuck off, get lost, goodbye
Fuck off, get lost, goodbye
Fuck off, get lost, goodbye
Yeah, kick rocks, get lost, goodbye

I don't think you heard me, we're finished
I don't think you're listening, we're through
I don't even hate you, to be honest
I just love myself enough to leave you
I don't think you heard me, we're finished
I don't think you're listening, baby, we're through
I don't even hate you, no, to be honest
I just love myself enough to leave you

So fuck off
And get lost
Fuck off, get lost, goodbye
You got to tell them, "Fuck off, get lost, goodbye"
Now kick rocks, get lost, goodbye

I don't think you heard me, we're finished
I don't think you're listening, we're through
I don't even hate you, to be honest
Fuck off, get lost, goodbye
Oh, fuck off, get lost, goodbye
