

leave me

anees

Yeah, I don't like the person that I am when I hurt you
'Cause in those moments, I desert you
And I realize I don't deserve you, no, I don't deserve you, but I'm praying on my knees begging that you won't leave me
But you can do so much better, please, believe me (Yeah)
So, I won't blame you if you leave me, leave me 'cause I

I made a promise on the day we said vows
I swore to love you and to never let you down
I told your father I'd protect you from the pain
I told your mother I would shelter you from rain
You were the only one that I have ever dreamed of My perfect truth that I've hidden with every lie
If only I was less concerned about our future
I might've noticed you needed me by your side

And after all of those days, you kept it inside
Don't know how I missed every tear that you cried
I love you enough to let you be free
So, I can't blame you, baby, it started with me
'Cause I loved you but left you in moments of need
We broke like a promise, too heavy to keep
And baby, it kills me lately
'Cause maybe I'm the reason why

I don't like the person that I am when I hurt you
'Cause in those moments I desert you
And I realize I don't deserve you, no, I don't deserve you, but
I'm praying on my knees begging that you won't leave me
But you can do so much better, please, believe me
So, I won't blame you if you leave me, leave me 'cause I

I'm so sorry for the way things went down
You deserve a king and I'm not wearing no crown

There's tears welling up in your eyes
And I'd be lying through my teeth if I told you I was surprised
What did I think would happen after all of this time?
It's like you blink, and seven years just passes you by
I wish that I could run it back, and right my wrongs
Maybe you wouldn't be gone if I wasn't chasing these songs

And I spent my energy tryna actually be a better man
Lost my centerpiece, and I don't think you understand
What you meant to me, our love was deeper than ration
But never loved you enough to set you free from my passion, I

I don't like the person that I am when I hurt you
'Cause in those moments I desert you
And I realize I don't deserve you, no, I don't deserve you, but
I'm praying on my knees begging that you won't leave me
But you can do so much better, please, believe me
So, I won't blame you if you leave me, leave me 'cause I

But maybe we had to break to grow
Maybe I had to lose to learn
But when I hear your name, I feel the pain

In my heart still burns
Maybe this is my sacrifice
Maybe I'll love you my whole life
But I'll lay down my pride
And hope you find me on the other side

I don't like the person that I am when I hurt you
'Cause in those moments I desert you
And I realize I don't deserve you, no, I don't deserve you, but
I'm praying on my knees begging that you won't leave me
But you can do so much better, please, believe me
So, I won't blame you if you leave me, leave me 'cause I
