

NoWhere

Anella Herim

(Nah Man Nella Made It)

We go nowhere
You show no care
Baby I don't need a life time
Just waiting on the right time

Cause you show no love for me
Till the money coming in comfortably, Oh

Did you ever really catch feelings?
(Did I let myself fall too far)
Was it only me in the beginning?
(Did I give you too much of my heart)
Loving, it's a little more tangible
Too many questions I don't have the right answer for
I'm trying to pick up all the pieces but my hands are full
Breaking under pressure, what can you do?
Oh

One minute you're fine and the next you're gone
I look around now tell me where did you go
All your ashes started turning to gold
Yeah
I'm doing better now that you're gone
I bet you hope I run out of road
But that was me when I was with you

We go nowhere
You show no care
Baby I don't need a life time
Just waiting on the right time

Cause you show no love for me
Till the money coming in comfortably, Oh

Knew I should've listened to my intuition
Now she got me sitting home alone and missing out
I need a better reason for me not to give in
Stuck inside my head afraid you're gonna catch me slipping up

Aye
So tell me how you feel
Tell me if you really love me, tell me if it's real
I don't want another person trying to find a deal
(Uh)
Stepped into this life and found a way around the pills
Only thing I worry about is counting dollar bills yeah
Food for my family I'm just trying to find a meal yeah
7 Digits I'm just trying to count a million

If you'd have told me that you found a way to do it quicker
You'd have a better chance of calling and I pick up
Had bigger problems and I drown em drinking liquor
So every time you'd talk to me I'd hiccup

Cold liquor's usually how I start my day off

But you should'nt be someone that I pay off
You said you had enough I had to take off
I figured out you'd cut my brakes ohh

I never liked that I rest my soul
In a red solo
My God it took so long
I had to cut it off slow
(Ooo oh, ooo ohhh, ooo oh, ohhh)
(I had to cut it off slow)
(I don't need it, ooo)

We go nowhere
You show no care
Baby I don't need a life time
Just waiting on the right time

Cause you show no love for me
Till the money coming in comfortably, Oh
(Oh)
Knew I should've listened to my intuition
Now she got me sitting home alone and missing out
I need a better reason for me not to give in
Stuck inside my head afraid you're gonna catch me slipping up
