(Uh uh)
(Yeah)
I been paranoid
Oh, uh uh
Uh
Yeah

I just spent like 90 on a rover truck
(Uh uh)
In the studio so long I sobered up
(Uh uh)
Why my ex still calling I been over her (No)
I been going all in ain't no choking up
But the smoke in the air got me choking up
I got no room left to care, I still keep it tough (Uh)
I know I preach to love everyone
But I been paranoid
I been paranoid
No
I been on my own
I ain't worried bout a home
I'm just trying to get this money
Really trying to keep it going (Uh)
But the road alone got me longing
Why It feel like I still hear my home calling
It's in my head, so you wouldn't understand no
I know I said I wanted everything I am tho
It still feel like something missing
That's why I be steady wishing
I can feel my soul creeping
Weeping, wheezing
Worried bout the money
But this stuff be so misleading
Hollywood life keep you dreaming
Steeping
Get to feeling low, I get high like the ceiling
Woah woah
Gotta keep 'em on they toes but
I know know
I could prolly lose control
Get too gone
And meet my maker
I just hope he knows I'm better off
Cause I just

I just
Woke up to another one gone
OD, this shit way to strong
Why the best, be the ones that die young
I write a verse and hope my work will live long
I can't believe all these things I been seeing
Can't sleep when the guns keep singing
I can't breath, wake me up if I'm dreaming
It's KV, TB, rest easy
But I don't wanna tell my brothers rest easy
So Don't go walking towards that light if
You get sleepy
No I ain't ready for my crew to go snoozing
In the end you won, but it still feel like I'm losing cause
