

Tequila

Anella Herim

How do I know if it's broken or too broke to fix?
I can't taste your lips like I used to See, I fell in love with the heartbreak
It's not what you did, you weren't meant to fix all my issues
But you ran away and left me to pay
You led me astray for another
I found a way to make sure the day that you leave
The pain never comes
I won't right my wrongs, but I'll write a song
And tell you my head's in the gutter
I found another lover
Named Alcohol

And my breath still tastes like tequila from last night
I can still see all the fear inside of your eyes
I've been wondering if you're ever gonna ask why I left you her e

One shot, two shot down
She don't ever leave me hanging
Maybe I'm way too far down
But she listens to what I'm saying
And I don't know if she can feel my pain
But she helps take it away
Maybe I'm a little insane
Say I'm not better off, either way

I know my breath still tastes like tequila from last night
I can still see all the fear inside of your eyes
I've been wondering if you're ever gonna ask why I left you her
