

Shine

Anette Olzon

Beautiful child, you'll never be lonely
Just like a tree you raise to the sky
So light moving so slowly
Making your way to no ones land

Shine and lift your head high
Hope you'll never be lonely
Cause life is all that you need

Forgive the unkind so bitter and envy
No light in their day blackening light
Shine bright see all your glory
No need to cry stay strong and you'll fly

So shine and lift your head high
Hope you'll never be lonely
Cause life is all that you need

So shine and lift your head high
Hope you'll never be lonely
So shine and lift your head high
Hope you'll never be lonely

You'll never be lonely
