

Sick of You

Anette Olzon

Sick of you broke me used my love for you
Claimed me took the life I knew
Owned by you
Just like a puppet on a string

Blame the world be the victim of it all
I don't really care!
Your cross is yours to bare!
Fooled me once fooled me twice
Third times the charm
Game set match to me
I'll crush you like a flea

I win you lose
Blame me shame me
All the abuse no more you're gone
Now I'm leaving

Sick of you broke me used my love for you
Claimed me took the life I knew
Owned by you
Just like a puppet on a string!
Hate you fool
I hate you I can't look at you
My scars will heal
I will get through
Without you
No longer my piper nor my king

Pack your bags and go
Control is lost long ago
Everyone will know
The way you've been all along

I win you lose
Blame me shame me
All the abuse no more you're gone
Now I'm leaving

Sick of you broke me used my love for you
Claimed me took the life I knew
Owned by you
Just like a puppet on a string
Hate you fool
I hate you I can't look at you
My scars will heal
I will get through
Without you
No longer my piper nor my king

You can mock me, shame me
Lay your shit upon me, I don't care
There's no compare
To how I hate you, blame you
Wish the weight of the world upon your head
You've made your bed

Sick of you broke me used my love for you
Owned by you
Hate you fool
I hate you I can't look at you
My scars will heal
I will get through
Without you

Sick of you broke me used my love for you
Owned by you
Just like a puppet on a string
Hate you fool
I hate you I can't look at you
My scars will heal
I will get through
Without you
No longer my piper nor my king
