

Casa

Anfa Rose

Where did the sun go?
I swear, we just woke up an hour ago
So I hit the drum roll
I hope, we got something to saddle rope
Where did the sun go?
In the casa, I'm with the Rasta, I'm still faded
Tell my brothers do not bother me I'm bathing
Hey little mama, heard she so fire, I might make her Make her my wife, tell my mother, I'm your [?]

In a sea full of sharks you a pearl
You and me come from two different worlds
But that won't stop me from being who you was made for Wherever I go, I'll never be the same, so Now she want some, choose you again
Loyal touch and your smooth [?]
I lose a day when it's you in my bed
It doesn't make sense

Where did the sun go?
I swear, we just woke up an hour ago
So I hit the drum roll
I hope, we got something to saddle rope
Where did the sun go?
In the casa, I'm with the Rasta, I'm still faded
Tell my brothers do not bother me I'm bathing
Hey little mama, heard she so fine, I might make her
Make her my wife, tell my mother, I'm your [?]

Oh, you give me heaven and hell, you give me heaven and hell
Oh, only met you last night but I seen there's two different si des to yourself
But we could be a match made in heaven or a match made in hell Either way, I'd rather skip the bull and find that shit out for myself
Through the roof its you or the drugs but I feel it yeah I feel it
Through the roof its real if its love but you feel me I can fee l it
Either way you put it I ain't mad I'm just glad I'm back to fee ling something
Either way you put it I ain't mad I'm just trying to find out Where did the sun go?
