

MAYBALL

Anfa Rose

It's alright with me, whichever way we go
'Cause, girl, I died in her arms

You ain't got time to waste
I ain't got time to waste either
Knowing the time it takes
Time it takes for me to miss you

I need ya in multiple ways
You must've shot from the waist
Caught me off guard, I must say
I can't ignore you

Done with laying here on my own, girl, I been waiting for ya
Done with you all on my mind, girl, I just can't ignore it
Through all of this here, I hope you still been waiting for it
I been waiting for it

And you got your attention you wanted
And I got some loose ends with your shawty
And you know I don't run out of favours
Just long as I don't run out of patience
Made it clear what you want, and you want me
I upgraded your step and your sex appeal
Got your breasts, you want ass and the lipo
You need everything tight, walk a tight rope

I'll admit I slept on you, it won't happen again
I'll admit I made a few more fall since then
I was looking for ya, whole time you had my back
Now you ain't got that, I can't fall back
So I'ma do it for ya, even when you ain't mine
So I'ma pull up on ya, just give me the place and time
Better yet, let's take a trip where the sun don't shine
Where the fun don't stop, where the drinks in line

I need ya in multiple ways
You must've shot from the waist
Caught me off guard, I must say
I can't ignore you

Done with laying here on my own, girl, I been waiting for ya
Done with you all on my mind, girl, I just can't ignore it
Through all of this here, I hope you still been waiting for it
I been waiting for it
