When I touch your body girl, I touch your soul
When I come on what you wearing you know less is mores
I'm a dog at heart, keep it cold as ice
But I think I kind of like it
Long as you keep your cool girl and play a part
I ain't got no time to fuss

A couple bitches in my city
Probably got a couple words for me
Ain't none of my time you know these days my time ain't free
We going let the talking so the talking
Cuz we both know the talk is cheap
And right now it's only you and I
Don't get it twisted

Just watch my back, I watch yours
I know we both got flaws
But don't let nobody know I'm yours
Some things is better left unsaid
Some message is better left unread
I've only got you in mind, you and I

There's money on the table, got to take it
The time is out of essence
Come and get this money with me, baby
Be my little flex
Love when you talk that shit, oh yeah
Love it when you get aggressive
Ain't no other way around it
Step up or get stepped on
Now I'm going, I know now

A couple bitches in my city
Probably got a couple words for me
They ain't got none of my time
You know these days my time ain't free
We gonna let the talking so the talking
Cause we both know the talk is cheap
And right now it's only you and I
Don't get it twisted

Just watch my back, I watch yours
I know we both got flaws
But don't let nobody know I'm yours
Some messages better left unread
I've only got you in mind, you and I

When I touch your body, girl I touch your soul
