

Blessing and a Curse

Angaleena Presley

you finally find someone and you lose yourself ain't it somethin' when a heart finds a home it's so real and so right, then it's wrong then you gotta fight to get along you gotta work so hard to make it look easy you thank God for the moments in between

'cause if it ain't gettin' better it's gettin' worse somewhere between a blessing and a curse you finally get somewhere good, then it ain't good enough ain't it funny how the road leads you on you drive and you drive and you look back then you only want what you had

(2x):

you gotta work so hard to make it look easy
you thank God for the moments in between
'cause if it ain't gettin' better it's gettin' worse
